IN BRIEF

Nestled in peaceful surroundings, this spacious 250 m² house stands out for its potential and old-world charm.

Built in 1850, its architecture is typical of its era, with generous volumes and optimal room layout.

The walnut staircase leads to a completely open space of over 100 m², with no partitions, which is exceptional.

The grounds of almost 6,000 m² offer unobstructed views, allowing you to imagine an exterior design to match your aspirations.
