IN BRIEF

Situated just seven minutes from the waters of stunning Lac de Guerlédan sits this extensively renovated three bedroom character stone longère. Nestled in a quiet hamlet under five minutes from Caurel, this cosy home, complete with outbuilding (to be transformed into additional living space if desired), private garden and an additional field could be your dream property.

A porch leads into a spacious living and dining room, with a coal/wood fired range that supplies the central heating for the entire house, and can also be used for cooking. A second living room with wood burning stove, and a fully fitted kitchen complete the ground floor. Upstairs are three lovely bedrooms with cathedral ceilings and a large family bathroom.

Attached to the property is a large barn which could potentially be transformed into additional living space along with a private garden...
