IN BRIEF

Located in the magnificent massif des Bauges national park mountain range between Chambéry, Aix-les-Bains and Annecy, this beautiful rustic 2 bed chalet is the perfect mountain getaway. The forest garden of nearly 3000m2 is part of the wonderful forest landscape with mountain trails available straight from the door.

It also provides free heating with the highly efficient thermal mass wood burning stove, which makes the energy performance rating look, quite frankly, ridiculous. Even using the oil-fired heating boiler only costs a small amount per year
