DESCRIPTION

The entrance to the house is through an enclosed veranda, an open shelter, or an independent entrance at garden level. A nice wooden door leads to the spacious living room with a fireplace. A corridor provides access to a storage cupboard, a newly tiled bathroom, separate toilets, the renovated kitchen, and the dining room with large windows. Beautiful stone flooring and exposed beams enhance this level.

The office, accessed via a wooden staircase, leads to the lower ground floor, which includes a playroom, a storeroom, a living room, a bedroom with external access, a tiled bathroom, and an independent entrance. A nice tiled floor finishes this level.

On the first floor, a corridor leads to three bedrooms with parquet flooring and wall panelling, a bathroom, and separate toilets.

An enclosed garage completes the quality features of this family home.

The outdoor area includes a large garage to restore, two open sheds, and a barn. The land, about 10 acres, includes a garden and various types of woodland.

7 minutes from a lovely village in the Périgord with amenities and a train station.

Land tax: €1,520
