IN BRIEF

Within easy access to the historic village of Clugnat, with a bakers/grocery store. This is a very well presented property, with lots of character and original features.

The property is situated in a small hamlet with French neighbours, elevated above the Verraux valley, allowing for beautiful views of the open countryside. The barn has previously received permission to convert to a residential property, although this has now expired.

DESCRIPTION

With its pointed stone walls, granite fireplace and oak beams, this is a lovely rural house with still more potential.

Currently comprising :

Entrance hall with WC and under stairs cupboard, double door lead to the large and comfortable lounge/diner with feature granite fireplace and wood burning stove.

Open plan fitted kitchen

Three double bedrooms,
Bathroom

The attached barn has received a C.U. to convert into a 5 bed property (now expired, but easy to renew) to allow for a large conversion to create a new property with Gîte.

There is a second smaller barn or workshop.

To the rear, a south-facing terrace with exceptional open countryside views.

A very pretty and pleasing property. Ideal for relaxing holidays in France or as a permanent French home.
