DESCRIPTION

Character Home Awaiting Your Personal Touch in the Lake District

Nestled in a prime location, this charming stone-built house offers a unique blend of character, privacy, and the exciting opportunity to imprint your personal style. A substantial renovation is nearing completion, presenting a rare chance to acquire a home where the hard work is done, and the creative finishing touches are yours to orchestrate.

The property boasts a generous front courtyard with off-street parking, complemented by a large drive-through barn, ideal for covered parking or a workshop.

Step inside to discover a breathtaking double-height atrium, the heart of the home, showcasing exposed stone walls, a bespoke staircase, and impressive oak beams. This clever design floods the space with natural light, creating an ambiance of grandeur and spaciousness throughout the four-bedroom residence.

The ground floor features a sprawling open-plan kitchen and dining area (35m²) with seamless access to the garden patio, perfect for indoor/outdoor entertaining. Original flagstone floors, exposed beams, and a feature stone fireplace evoke the history of the house, creating a cozy atmosphere for cooler evenings.

The family lounge opens onto the expansive rear gardens, where mature trees offer shaded retreats for relaxation and wildlife observation. A versatile additional room provides the option of a ground-floor bedroom or study, and a convenient guest WC completes the ground floor layout.

Ascend the atrium staircase to the landing, overlooking the light-filled space. Two generously sized bedrooms off the landing offer picturesque views of the lush gardens,...
