IN BRIEF

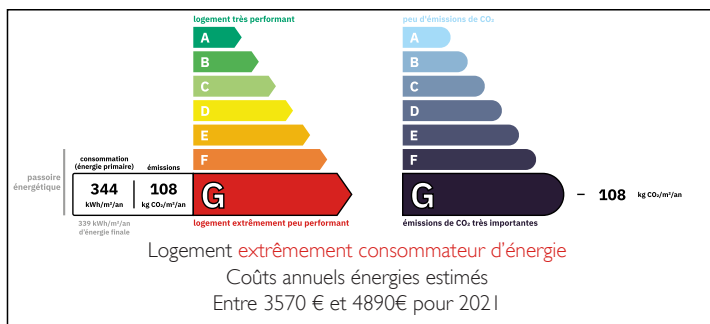

Nestled high at the foot of the famous Château de Turenne, listed as one of France's Most Beautiful Villages, this beautiful stone house offers incredible views of the entire village, the slate roofs, and the surrounding countryside.

The house itself boasts many historic features: spiral staircase in the 12th-century tower, mullioned windows, monumental fireplace... You'll find yourself daydreaming behind ancient walled doors (leading to the château?), imagining the guards taking turns from their watchtower on the 12th-century staircase...

On the ground floor, the house features an huge living room, a bedroom and a large kitchen/dining area; the two upstairs bedrooms are accessed via the monumental staircase, making it possible to accommodate tourists in bed & breakfast accommodation.
