DESCRIPTION

Imagine yourself in absolute tranquility, surrounded by lush nature, in this authentic 196 m² stone farmhouse flooded with natural light.

Its historic walls house four welcoming bedrooms, including a master suite designed for your comfort, featuring a private bathroom and WC.

The spacious 50 m² living area has preserved its old-world charm with terracotta tiles, stone walls, magnificent beams, and traditional bricou, all complemented by a sumptuous period fireplace.

The separate kitchen is perfectly functional!

A bathroom, an additional shower room, and two WCs add extra convenience, as does the children's playroom, which could easily be converted into a fifth bedroom.

Two adjoining barns (32 m² and 45 m²) offer even more space—either as extensions of the home or transformed into a separate guesthouse.

A sheepfold, currently used as a bed-and-breakfast, completes the property and features two bedrooms, a shower room, and a 21 m² covered terrace styled as a summer kitchen.

Another covered terrace, attached to the barns, provides an additional 30 m² of space.

Outside, more than five hectares grant you unparalleled freedom and breathtaking views of the meadows and woods surrounding the estate.

Sunny days linger by the 9x5m swimming pool, which includes a shallow paddling area for little ones.

More than just a property, this is a way of life—a place to discover without delay! But beware, once you arrive, you may never want to leave.
