NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Roussillon is a very picturesque and famous village in the Luberon, perched on a hill, and its red earth still produces the famous 'ochres', natural pigments. The village is frequented year-round, offers a weekly market, and has many shops: bakery, butcher, convenience store, hairdresser... and a myriad of craft stalls. There is no shortage of restaurants, as well as bistros with terraces offering splendid views. On the practical side, there is a post office, a dentist, a doctor...

About 10 minutes away is the town of Apt, which has a very popular weekly market in Provence, supermarkets, schools, a middle school, as well as a cinema, swimming pool, all administrative offices, and a hospital.

Roussillon is located in the heart of the Luberon Regional Natural Park and offers rare, preserved landscapes suitable for hiking, horseback riding, or cycling.

Note that the Avignon TGV station is 50 km away and Marseille Marignane airport is about an hour's drive.

It will be a pleasure to show you around this beautiful place.
