IN BRIEF

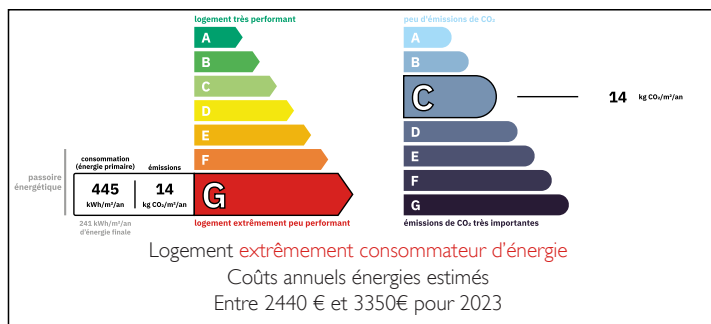

UNDER OFFER Charming Stone House with Views and Guest Cottage

Nestled on the outskirts of the picturesque village of Champagne-et-Fontaines in the Dordogne, this charming old stone house offers breathtaking countryside views and timeless character. The main house features two cozy bedrooms and a renovated open-plan kitchen and living area, blending rustic charm with modern comfort. Character touches such as exposed stone and wooden beams have been preserved.

An adjoining barn provides generous space with large openings, currently home to a delightful summer kitchen — perfect for entertaining. An adjoining outbuilding is ideal for storage, and the former art studio has been converted into a quaint guest house, ideal for visitors or creative pursuits. There is also an underground water tank for garden

DESCRIPTION

Charming Stone House with Views and Guest Cottage in Dordogne

Nestled on the outskirts of the picturesque village of Champagne-et-Fontaines in the Dordogne, this charming old stone house offers breathtaking countryside views and timeless character. The main house features two cozy bedrooms and a renovated open-plan kitchen and living area, blending rustic charm with modern comfort. Character touches such as exposed stone and wooden beams have been preserved.

An adjoining barn provides generous space with large openings, currently home to a delightful summer kitchen — perfect for entertaining. An adjoining outbuilding is ideal for storage, and the former art studio has been converted into a quaint guest house, ideal for visitors or creative pursuits. There is also an underground water tank for garden irrigation — both practical and environmentally friendly.

A rare opportunity combining peace, charm, and potential — ideal for a primary residence, holiday home, or artistic escape.
