DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the peaceful countryside of Kerien, this enchanting 2-bedroom stone longère is brimming with charm and character, offering the perfect rural retreat with fully established equestrian facilities.

On the ground floor, you'll find an inviting open-plan kitchen and dining area warmed by a modern pellet burner, a cozy lounge with a traditional wood burner, a practical shower room with WC, and additional features including a boot room and wood store. Upstairs, a mezzanine landing leads to two spacious double bedrooms, making it ideal for families or guests.

For equestrian enthusiasts, the property boasts a fully equipped stable block with 8 stables, a hay barn, and a clubhouse—ready to operate as a riding school or livery yard. There's also a sand school, multiple paddocks spanning over 2 hectares, and a tranquil duck pond, creating an animal lover's haven.

A second stone longère offers excellent potential for conversion into an additional home, guest accommodation, or gîte, adding further value and flexibility to this exceptional property.

Located in Kerien, a charming commune in the heart of Brittany, surrounded by beautiful countryside and direct access to bridle paths for endless riding adventures. The area is known for its strong community spirit, scenic walking trails, and easy access to local amenities in nearby Guingamp.
