DESCRIPTION

Situated on the edge of a friendly traditional village in the Pyrenees, this charming home offers peace, privacy, and practicality — all within walking distance of local amenities including a bar/restaurant, mini-market and bakery, post office, and a petrol station.

Just a 2-minute stroll from the village lake, it's ideally located for nature lovers, families, or anyone seeking a relaxing second home.

The elevated position of the house provides wonderful views of the surrounding countryside, best enjoyed from the large, south-facing balcony.

With flexible accommodation over two levels, a garage, enclosed garden, and potential for rental income or multi-generational living, this property is full of possibilities.
