IN BRIEF

Reached via a long cypress-lined driveway, this charming domain is set on approximately 30 acres. The main stone residence showcases rustic character throughout, with original features including exposed beams and stone walls. A well-appointed two-bedroom guest house completes the property. Ideally located just a short drive from Bergerac Airport, this delightful estate—with its stone fireplaces, terracotta floors, and authentic period details—blends beautifully into its rural surroundings and is truly a must-see.

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Upon entering the property via a sheltered terrace draped with overhanging wisteria, you arrive in the entrance hall (approx. 8.30 m × 2.24 m). From the left of the hallway, access is provided to one of two ground-floor bedrooms (each approx. 5 m × 5 m); the second bedroom is reached via a set of wooden stairs.

Opposite the entrance hall lies the kitchen, while the living room is found to the right. Further along on the far right is a shower room with twin basins, W.C., and travertine tiling.

The kitchen (approx. 6.5 m × 5.30 m) features a beautiful original inglenook fireplace, space for two dishwashers, space for an oven, and a built-in microwave oven. The living room also boasts an impressive inglenook fireplace and original internal wooden bi-fold shutters.

The dining room and office area can be accessed from either the kitchen or the living room.

A staircase in the kitchen leads to two additional bedrooms (approx. 4.25 m × 6.0 m and 5.45 m × 5.0 m), as well as a bathroom (approx. 1.5 m × 2.07 m).

Another bedroom with an en-suite bathroom (with W.C. and bidet) is reached via the office area.

A further staircase in the office area leads down to another bedroom with large doors opening onto a stone terrace. To the right of this bedroom is a spacious bathroom comprising a wet-room style shower, bathtub, double sinks, and W.C., all finished with travertine flooring and wall tiling in the shower...
