IN BRIEF

Near the charming village of Anglès and the famous Raviège lake, you will find this exceptional property. In fact, this estate is listed and quoted in historical works on the châteaux and manor houses of the Tarn. A splendid estate!

After complete renovation, it would be perfect for a project linked to hospitality, agrotourism or as a very large family home.

Well-hidden in the heart of the forest, with its 1.4 hectares of parkland and enhanced by the presence of a lake, in which the château is marvellously reflected, the château is both imposing, austere and mysterious. It has a powerful facade, brought to life by a play of volumes. It is divided into a central pavilion flanked by lower side wings, with 2 non-protruding towers.

There are also outbuildings and a character's cottage to the rear, and...

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Let's start our visit by taking the access road right through the heart of our beautiful forest massifs. Don't forget that we're in the Montagne Noire and in the Parc Naturel Régional du Haut Languedoc, so that sets the scene!

At the very end it reveals itself, mysterious and imposing, leaving us speechless and spellbound.

A real postcard and historical film setting! This estate has contributed to local history and is mentioned in numerous books.

All that's left is for its future owner to restore it to its former glory.

It's a major renovation project that needs to be planned and undertaken, but the result will be magical!

We arrived near the château, and the imposing façade was revealed. All the windows face south, overlooking the lake and forest!

We enter, and yes, we've suddenly gone back in time! A vast 18m² hall welcomes us, and reveals a very beautiful staircase, all the architectural details are there, ashlar frames, French ceilings, monumental fireplaces... This hall leads to two wings, in the right-hand one, we discover a beautiful 36m² lounge with fireplace and beautiful wood panelling on the wall, a shower room or hallway point to be renovated or redesigned.

Then the left wing houses a second lounge or dining room of 34 m² with a fireplace; adjoining is a kitchen of 28m² and its utility room, which in turn leads to a hallway used for storage.

Back in the entrance hall, we take the imposing staircase up to the...
