IN BRIEF

Centrally located in the picturesque spa town of Amélie-les-Bains, this charming duplex apartment has on its doorstep shops, cafés, restaurants and the thermal baths - ideal for a permanent residence or holiday home.

Originally two apartments, it has been reconfigured into one, creating a spacious and flexible living arrangement across two levels. This includes a large, bright bedroom on the upper floor, with its own ensuite shower room and WC. The lower level comprises a living room with open-plan kitchen and a 2nd shower room with WC.

The large adjoining covered terrace has been enclosed with double-glazed windows to create additional indoor living space. This versatile room could be used as a lounge, dining room, office, or 2nd bedroom.

Although perfectly habitable, there is scope for personal touches and updates to suit your taste.
