IN BRIEF

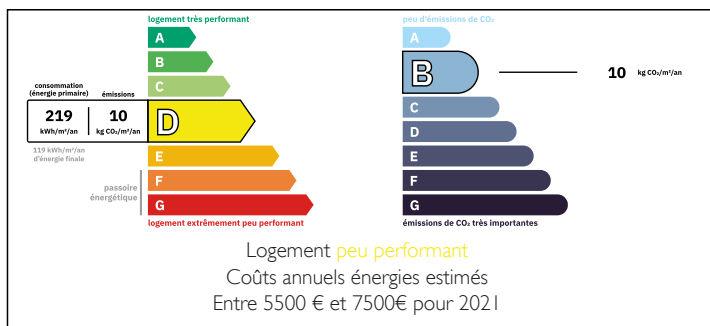

This renovated and well-presented Charentaise stone farmhouse property in a prime location in a pretty village, offers pleasant living with great business opportunities, near to the popular and picturesque Gironde estuary in the Charente Maritime.

It consists of a bright and spacious main house on two floors with attached gite and ground floor apartment, but could be easily converted back into a large family home if desired. It enjoys a well maintained in-ground swimming pool with domed electric cover, relandscaped pool terrace and garden, pergola, large barn and sheds, and vineyard and sea views.

The main roof has recently been replaced, and the front garden recently relandscaped.

Exposed beams and tiled and wood parquet floors.
