NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Situated in a serene wine village close to Gevrey-Chambertin, this impressive manor house, originally built in 1865, was fully renovated around ten years ago. It combines modern comforts with high ceilings and generous, light-filled spaces, making it an ideal retreat for wine lovers seeking an easy, low-maintenance lifestyle without the need for a garden. Two balconies offer charming views over the village.

The house can be accessed from the parking area behind the church, leading directly into a welcoming ground-floor lounge with a fireplace. This level also features an attractive wine cellar and a storage room.

Alternatively, the main street entrance opens into a spacious living area comprising a comfortable sitting space and a large dining area. The kitchen is accessible from both the living area and the hallway, which also leads to the staircase and a ground-floor toilet. Well equipped and spacious, the kitchen accommodates a breakfast table and retains an original fireplace. A laundry room is located beyond the kitchen.

The staircase leads to a first-floor landing serving three generous bedrooms and a bathroom with bathtub, shower, and toilet, all enhanced by wooden parquet flooring.

On the second floor, a bright mezzanine provides ample space for a reading or relaxation area and leads to two further bedrooms and a shower room with toilet. From the mezzanine windows, lovely views over the surrounding vineyards can be enjoyed.
