NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Property Features

Ground Floor: A lovely kitchen opens directly onto the lush garden and patio—a perfect spot for morning coffee or al fresco meals. The adjacent lounge is practical and bright.

First Floor: Two generous double bedrooms provide comfort and space. A contemporary shower room adds convenience and functionality.

Outdoor Space

Enjoy a private garden with a paved patio area—ideal for relaxing, entertaining, or enjoying the Breton sunshine.

Maël-Carhaix itself, with around 1,500 inhabitants, boasts a remarkably well-served center for its size, including a bakery, grocery/gift shop, post office, bank, pharmacy, hair salon, cafés, and restaurants. Medical services are also impressive: the town supports eight general practitioners, nine nurses, a physiotherapist, a pharmacy and ambulance service—all unusual in this rural part of Brittany.

Outdoor enthusiasts will appreciate easy access to the voie verte, former railway tracks-turned walking and cycle paths that connect the village to the Nantes-Brest canal, and from there to scenic woodlands and waterways.

Why You'll Love It

Village convenience: All essentials (shops, post office, cafés, healthcare) within walking distance.

Nature on your doorstep: Garden plus immediate access to lakeside strolls and trail networks.

Regional appeal: Close to Brittany's largest lake, canals, and even festivals like the famous Vieilles Charrues in Carhaix (10 km away).
