NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Set in the heart of a lovely Charente village, opposite the church and a short walk from a Superb restaurant this cottage will make the perfect 'lock up and leave' holiday home.

Through the front door and a couple of steps lead down into the entrance hall. To the right is a spacious Lounge with Wood stove and windows to the front and back.

To the left of the entrance is the Dining room 19m2 and to the rear of the house is the good size kitchen 20m2.

Off the dining room another door leads into a further room 22m2 currently used as a storeroom/woodstore but could become a further reception room/office if required.

Stairs from the hallway lead to the first floor where you will find the master bedroom above the lounge with an ensuite shower room with wc 46m2. There are two further bedroom 21m2 with a 'feature' granite fireplace and 15m2, there is a family shower room and large landing at the top of the stairs.

Out the back of the house is a terraced area running most of the length of the house 14metres and comfortably wide enough for table and chairs or a BBQ space.

This really is a great opportunity to become the next proud owners of a lovely property
