NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Imagine waking up to birdsong, with no traffic, just the gentle sounds of nature. This is the reality at this charming property, nestled at the very end of a peaceful lane in a friendly hamlet. Privacy is paramount, with neighbours only to the front, ensuring a serene environment.

This spacious home, offering approximately 170 m² of comfortable living space, reflects quality and authentic French living.

The kitchen features a remarkable stone oven – a nod to tradition. The living room, warmed by a wood-burning stove, is an ideal spot for quiet evenings.

Outside, your world expands. A beautiful terrace, complete with a refreshing inground swimming pool, overlooks a stunning 2-hectare expanse of natural land. (Which you can also view from the second living room). This is your personal paradise, perfect for relaxation, entertaining, or simply enjoying the vast open spaces.

With an additional 160m² of barn and garage space, there's ample room for animals like a horse, vehicles, storage, or perhaps a new creative venture. A naturally cool cave, perfect for safeguarding your cherished French wines.

While drawing water from the commune, the property also benefits from its own private well. Heating is currently oil-based, but a heat pump is already in place, ready to be connected for enhanced energy efficiency.

This property is a harmonious blend of tranquility, breathtaking scenery and charming authentic features, ready for your French countryside lifestyle.
