DESCRIPTION

For lovers of distinctive, character-filled homes, this property stands out for its excellent condition, rare C-rated energy performance, smart home features, and nearly new saltwater pool. A true haven of peace, nestled in a quiet hamlet just 10 minutes from Bergerac and 15 minutes from the airport.

Set in tranquil countryside, the home impresses with generous volumes and strong personality. Upon arrival, a charming, newly renovated 170 m² terrace sets the tone — offering a spacious outdoor living area, partly covered for summer dinners.

Inside, the bright cathedral-style living room with large wood-burning stove opens onto a fully equipped, convivial kitchen. An elegant mezzanine hosts the dining area and a cosy TV corner.

The house includes three bedrooms, one with exposed beams and a mezzanine office space, a dressing room, a shower room, separate WC, and ample storage thanks to a pantry and utility room.

Outside, everything is designed for comfort and relaxation. The superb 10 × 5 m saltwater pool, with motorized remote-controlled cover, enjoys southeast exposure for sun from morning to evening. The open views over surrounding fields enhance the sense of calm and freedom.

To welcome guests in style, a 15 m² independent studio with bedroom, shower, sink and WC is available.

The 2,929 m² plot also includes a 50 m² double garage with carport, a 35 m² workshop with upper storage level, and even a dedicated space for a camper van.

Smart home features are installed throughout, with the added bonus of a functional well, rare and...
