NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Set in the peaceful Allier countryside near Buxières-les-Mines, this versatile property offers a rare combination of two independent houses, generous land, extensive outbuildings and lovely open countryside views.

The property would suit a variety of buyers, whether looking for a spacious family home with separate accommodation for relatives or guests, or those seeking the potential to develop a small gîte or chambres d'hôtes activity.

The Principal House

The main house offers approximately 122m² of accommodation and has a particularly attractive layout for guest use, with four bedrooms, each with its own shower room and WC.

The accommodation also includes a comfortable living area and kitchen, with the house benefiting from double glazing and a combination of heating systems including a heat pump, wood burner and pellet stove.

The Second House

A second independent house of approximately 110m² provides considerable additional flexibility. It could be used as private accommodation, guest accommodation or adapted according to the new owner's needs.

There is also attic space providing further potential, subject to the necessary works and permissions.

Land & Outbuildings

Outside, the property sits within approximately 1.26 hectares of land, offering plenty of space for gardens, leisure areas, animals or further projects.

Several outbuildings provide useful storage and
