IN BRIEF

Have you been dreaming of renovating an old stone house? Look no further!

In a typical hamlet 5 minutes from the Dordogne and shops, this old stone house is a complete renovation project: everything needs to be redone, you have two floors of around 35 m2 at present (65 m2 on 2 levels, with direct access to the garden), which can be enlarged.

Beautiful original features: fine stonework, two inglenook fireplaces, beams, old floors, but a new roof structure!

A ruin at the rear of the house;

A barn with a floor area of 57 m2 (6.7 m high), with beautiful stone walls and, once again, a new roof and roof structure.
