DESCRIPTION

Discover a rare gem in the heart of Antigny, Vienne, where this spacious country property offers endless possibilities for family living, investment, or a peaceful holiday escape. Located at the edge of the picturesque Gartempe valley, this home combines rural serenity with proximity to the cultural treasures of Saint-Savin and Montmorillon. The price is available upon request, with agency fees paid by the seller, making this an attractive opportunity for discerning buyers.

Spanning two floors, the home is designed for flexibility and comfort. The ground floor features a welcoming open-plan kitchen and living room, perfect for family gatherings, alongside a bathroom, WC, and direct access to a practical cellar for storage. A separate entrance leads to a hallway with a cupboard, a cozy living room, a shower room, and two bedrooms, offering potential for independent living spaces. Upstairs, four additional bedrooms and a dedicated office provide ample room for a growing family, teleworking, or creative pursuits.

The property sits on approximately 990m² of lush grounds, ideal for gardening, outdoor play, or simply soaking in the tranquil countryside views. Previously configured as two separate dwellings, this home offers exciting potential for rental income or multigenerational living, subject to necessary permissions.

Nestled in the historic village of Antigny, this property is just moments from the UNESCO-listed frescoes of Saint-Savin Abbey, scenic walks along the Gartempe river, and vibrant local markets in nearby towns. With easy access to shops, schools, and services in Saint-Savin and Montmorillon, this home blends bucolic...
