DESCRIPTION

Large plot of non constructible land for sale in a peaceful rural setting in Bertric-Burée (24320), offering a total surface area of 6,920 m².

The land is undeveloped and currently used as open countryside. It offers a quiet environment with open views and attractive natural surroundings, providing a genuine sense of space and privacy. The setting is typical of the Dordogne countryside, with rolling landscapes, farmland, woodland and scattered hamlets, creating a very calm and authentic rural atmosphere.

Located in a pleasant countryside area, the plot benefits from a peaceful setting while remaining accessible to nearby villages and local amenities. The village of Bertric-Burée itself offers a traditional rural lifestyle, with essential services available in nearby towns such as Ribérac, which provides supermarkets, schools, medical services and weekly markets. The wider area is well known for its picturesque villages, historic character, and relaxed way of life.

Access to the land is via a country lane, and it is situated within a small hamlet, giving it a discreet but not isolated position. The surrounding area is mainly agricultural, with a mix of residential properties and farmland.
