NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Situated in a pretty little hamlet this property offers rural living with all the mod cons, including double glazing throughout, electric radiators and a very good energy rating of C.

Enter the front door and you are immediately into the bright, modern and well-equipped kitchen (approx 18m²) with tiled floor, tiled splash-back, electric oven and 80cm induction hob, plus plumbing for a washing machine and dishwasher. There is also room for a large American style fridge-freezer, plus there is an additional storage corner cupboard which houses the water tank.

The island provides an additional worktop and has a built-in dual oven/microwave. the owner has created a great space for both cooking and entertaining, as there is room for a table and chairs for four people. The woodburner in the gorgeous stone fireplace gives a feeling of country cosiness and makes it a lovely room to be in.

Through to the left and you enter the Living room (approx 18m²). Again with a tiled floor and a beautifully ornate reclaimed stone fire place, currently with an electric faux coal fire installed.

To the back of the kitchen you will find a lobby area, great for muddy boots and dogs.

To the left there is the stylish and modern bathroom (approx 6m²) with a claw-foot slipper bath, a large walk in shower, and a basin in an elegant vanity unit. There is also a heated towel rail.

Off the lobby area is a...
