NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Beautifully Maintained Home with Gîte, Outbuildings, Panoramic Views and South-Facing Garden – Move-in Ready

Tucked away in a peaceful village surrounded by the foothills of the Pyrenees, this attractive south-facing property offers a rare opportunity: a spacious, beautifully maintained main residence, a separate one-bedroom apartment (ideal for guests or letting), a mature garden with panoramic views, and a collection of outbuildings – all just a short drive from essential services and natural attractions.

This is a home that has been lovingly cared for, with character features, flexible accommodation, and ready-to-enjoy comfort throughout.

Let's step inside and explore the details:

MAIN HOUSE

GROUND FLOOR

Entrance Hall

A welcoming tiled hallway sets the tone for the house. With neutral tones and good lighting, it's the ideal transition space as you move through the home. There is a long wall radiator and staircase leading up to the first floor accommodation.

Bedroom 1 / Study

Currently used as a study, this versatile ground-floor room can also serve as a guest bedroom or hobby room. It has tiled flooring and a large window for natural light.

WC (Separate Toilet)

Convenient ground-floor WC with tiled floor and wash basin, ideal for guests and daily use.
