DESCRIPTION

Set in a peaceful countryside environment, this spacious family property offers both comfort and potential.

On the ground floor, the accommodation includes an entrance hall, office, dining room, fitted kitchen with utility and pantry, a formal dining room, a generous lounge, four bedrooms, a shower room, two WCs, and a bathroom. A double garage with attic above is attached to the house, providing excellent storage.

Upstairs, a large attic offers further scope for conversion if desired (subject to permissions).

Outside, the property is complemented by a terrace, gardens and over 1.7 hectares of land surrounding the house, and a swimming pool which will require refurbishment. For those needing space for vehicles or hobbies, there is a three-car garage with workshop and attic above, as well as another separate garage on the grounds.

A rare opportunity to acquire a home with so much space, practicality, and potential, perfect for family living or those seeking generous workshop and storage facilities in a pleasant rural setting.
