DESCRIPTION

For those who dream of country living with a touch of business potential, this remarkable property offers the perfect blend of lifestyle and opportunity. Set in unspoilt countryside and surrounded by abundant wildlife, it is ideal for anyone who enjoys open spaces, nature, and especially fishing.

At the heart of the grounds are two well-stocked fishing lakes and a meandering river, creating a peaceful backdrop and a true haven for outdoor enthusiasts. Adding to its appeal are two independent gîtes, perfect for hosting guests or generating a steady rental income.

The main home, together with the gîtes, is housed within one practical and thoughtfully laid-out building. The principal home provides around 250m² of living space and has been carefully modernised with comforts such as central heating and double glazing. On the ground floor you'll find a spacious fitted kitchen, dining room, a cosy snug with stairs to the upper floor, a large sitting room with fireplace, plus an office/entertainment room. Two bedrooms are located on this level- one benefitting from an ensuite shower room- along with a family bathroom, utility area and workshop.

Upstairs, the master suite enjoys a dressing area and ensuite bathroom with beautiful views over the lakes. Three further bedrooms and two additional bathrooms provide generous accommodation, while the landing can easily serve as a study nook, library or children's play area.

The two gîtes are equally inviting, each offering bright living/dining spaces, practical kitchens, bedrooms and shower rooms- ready to welcome family, friends...
