DESCRIPTION

Perched above Monaco, La Turbie reveals a spectacular panorama of the Mediterranean and the Principality.

Its authentic charm, picturesque alleys, and well-preserved heritage — crowned by the majestic Trophy of Augustus — make it an exceptional village.

Just minutes from Monaco and Nice, La Turbie offers a rare lifestyle on the French Riviera, blending serenity with vibrancy. Its preserved natural environment, nestled between sea and mountains, invites relaxation while remaining connected to the lively pulse of the Côte d'Azur.

Living in La Turbie means choosing a place where history and nature thrive in a postcard-perfect setting, offering a unique and refined quality of life.

A WORD FROM THE ARCHITECT

"Living Together and Apart! In this project, we aimed to bring the joy of living into a contemporary hamlet set in the heart of a large garden. Stairways and narrow paths weave between small clusters of apartment-houses, creating multiple routes with open views toward the village. Unity and diversity combine to offer a generous and varied architectural design".
