IN BRIEF

Built at the dawn of the French revolution in 1789, this stunning manoir has been painstakingly restored to the highest standard. The property maintains faithfully its period feel with its large luminous reception rooms, large well equipped kitchen still with its original bread oven fireplaces (not operational), and high quality bathroom facilities supporting 5 beautiful bedrooms. Outside, the property has further original features with its arched gateway, high terrace, stone well and dovecot tower overlooking a panoramic view. A prestige property comfortably 18th century, ready to move into!
