NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Located in Rouffiac-d'Aude, between Carcassonne and Limoux, this prestigious stone residence—once a wine estate—offers authenticity, space, and refined finishes. With a total of around 300 m² of living space, it consists of two independent dwellings, a garage, a workshop, and exceptional outdoor areas.

The Main House – 195 m²

The ground floor is thoughtfully designed around convivial living:

a brand-new 27 m² kitchen, fully fitted and finished with travertine tiles, forming the true heart of the home, a 25 m² dining room, perfect for hosting family and friends, a 40 m² dual-aspect lounge, opening onto the garden on one side and the private courtyard on the other, featuring exposed stone walls and a stylish Godin wood burner.

On the first floor, you'll find two bedrooms 14 m² & 12 m² (one with en-suite bathroom), a separate bathroom, and an office.

The second floor includes a 24 m² attic bedroom and a 20 m² bedroom with exposed beams and its own bathroom.

The Independent Apartment – 107 m²

Adjoining yet independent, the apartment offers on the ground floor a 26 m² lounge, a shower/laundry room, and a separate toilet.

Upstairs are two bedrooms, a shower room, a toilet, and a stunning 39 m² kitchen with a SMEG range cooker, opening onto a large L-shaped terrace with views over the garden.
