IN BRIEF

Dating from the 19th century, this unique historic residence sits in the heart of the medieval village of Bazoges-en-Pareds and enjoys a rich and colourful past. Over the years it has served as a village theatre, school and meeting hall, playing an important role in local life. Today, the property is arranged as a welcoming family home with potential to operate as a bed and breakfast, ideal for large or multi-generational living.

The main house offers four double bedrooms, while a self-contained annexe apartment provides excellent flexibility. The annexe includes a sitting room, fitted kitchen and shower room, with a spiral staircase leading to a large bedroom above, making it ideal for guests or independent living. The property enjoys magnificent views of the Donjon castle to the front, while to the rear there are far-reaching views across the...
