IN BRIEF

This beautifully maintained 5-bedroom home is ideal for buyers seeking a spacious primary residence near Montauban. Filled with natural light and offering panoramic views of the River Aveyron, countryside and, on clear days, the Pyrenees, it combines comfort, privacy and superb potential. The bright 40m² L-shaped living room with corner windows, fully equipped kitchen and second salon make it perfect for families, teleworking or creative professions. A 150m² independent studio on the garden level provides excellent scope for a home office, apartment or artisan workspace.

Set on 2.3 hectares with meadows, oak woodland and fruit trees, the property includes workshops, a garage and a south-facing terrace. With double glazing, fibre and good accessibility, it offers light, space and tranquillity just 10 minutes from Montauban's shops, restaurants and amenities.

GROUND FLOOR – SPACIOUS, BRIGHT & BEAUTIFULLY LAID OUT

A generous light-filled 30m² hallway sets the tone for the property, leading into a superb 40m² L-shaped living and dining room with striking corner windows and direct access to the south-facing terrace designed in the style of a ship's bridge. The views from here are truly breathtaking.

Bedroom 1 (18m²) enjoys terrace access, wonderful natural light and open views, with a shower room and separate WC forming a comfortable suite. Bedroom 2 (16m²) features parquet flooring and an ensuite basin and WC, while Bedroom 3 (20m²) is currently arranged as a spacious dressing room with excellent storage. A second 27m² room—ideal as a bedroom, games room or teleworking space—benefits from superb light and panoramic views. Bedroom 5 (15m²) has super countryside views.

The 22m² kitchen offers a centre island, plenty of workspace, tiled flooring and direct access to the terrace. High ceilings throughout enhance the impression of space and volume.
