IN BRIEF

Located on the tranquil edge of Castelnau d'Auzan Labarrère (Gers 32), this rare-to-market property offers the perfect blend of country living and income potential. Set amidst rolling vineyards and unspoilt Gascon countryside, the property consists of two independent houses, a large hangar, a traditional chai with garage and upstairs workshop, all set on generous grounds – ideal for animal lovers or those seeking space for creative or agricultural projects.

The spacious 5-bedroom main house boasts oil central heating, double glazing, and good insulation throughout. A bright summer room adjoining the kitchen adds a stunning living space to enjoy year-round views of the countryside. The large open-plan living/dining area is perfect for entertaining or family life.

A charming and fully equipped 2-bedroom gîte with an open-plan kitchen/living/dining space offers excellent rental potential or comfortable guest accommodation.
