IN BRIEF

This former 12th-century presbytery, located less than 20 minutes north of Sarlat, boasts a unique character with its 80-metre stone walls and slate roof. On the ground floor: a lovely living room, a 35m² dining room with its inglenook fireplace, a hallway with cupboards, a separate 14m² kitchen, a 4.5m² bathroom, a toilet with a washbasin, and two beautiful bedrooms of 10m² and 14m² each.

Upstairs, a large room of approximately 50m² serves as a bedroom and also an office. A beautiful shower room with toilet and unfinished attic space completes this level. In the basement (accessed from the kitchen or from the street with a 25m² outdoor garage) are two rooms with dirt floors of approximately 120m².

The south-facing garden offers a beautiful terrace, with access to an office and several rooms for storage or other purposes.

DESCRIPTION

This former 12th-century presbytery, located less than 20 minutes north of Sarlat, boasts a unique character with its 80-metre stone walls and slate roof. On the ground floor: a lovely living room, a dining room with a 35m² fireplace, a hallway with cupboards, a separate 14m² kitchen, a 4.5m² bathroom, a toilet with a washbasin, and two beautiful bedrooms of 10m² and 14m² each.

Upstairs, a large room of approximately 50m² serves as a bedroom and also an office. A beautiful shower room with toilet and unfinished attic space completes this level. In the basement (accessed from the kitchen or the street) are two beautiful rooms with a boiler, an oil tank, and a hot water tank of approximately 120m².

The south-facing garden offers a beautiful terrace, with access to an office and several rooms for storage or other purposes.

A second building (formerly the town hall) has been renovated and offers two levels of 30m² each, ensuring the house is not overlooked. Finally, on the street side, a 25m² garage and an entrance provide further access.
