NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This beautifully renovated house is presented in perfect condition and offers both immediate comfort and exciting possibilities for the future. Ideally situated, it combines modern living with countryside charm.

On the ground floor, the entrance has been newly tiled and opens into a modern, fully equipped kitchen with dishwasher, built-in oven, fridge-freezer, washing machine, and a new boiler. A contemporary shower room with towel radiator is also located downstairs.

The spacious living room features a cosy woodburner and doors leading out to a terrace with brand-new decking — the perfect spot to enjoy the immense, landscaped garden. The living area is tiled throughout and benefits from electric radiators.

Upstairs, there is a comfortable bedroom, a sitting room, and a fully tiled bathroom with full-size bath, toilet, and sink. The house has plenty of storage space.

Outside, the property sits on 3,890 m² of land, a large part of which is constructible and accessible by a separate gate, offering rare expansion potential for future buyers. The garden includes lawns, a gravel path, cherry and chestnut trees, and various seating areas. In the garden you'll find two practical, good-sized metal sheds with an adjacent gravel area, perfect for a mower and additional storage. A modern garden office with electrics, water, double glazing, electric radiators, and a small kitchen makes working from home or guest accommodation effortless!

Additional highlights include:

- Recently renovated with tasteful finishes
- New blue shutters and roof in good condition
- Fully double-glazed and connected to mains drains
