DESCRIPTION

A large detached cottage style stone house with a warm feel, combining the comfort of its recent renovation with the charm of original floor tiles, fireplace, beams etc.

Recent double glazing, electric shutters, electricity redone, mains drainage.

Outside there is a low maintenance cottage style garden 563m<sup>2</sup> with recent pool (around 10m<sup>2</sup>), a decked terrace, plus covered terrace area for outside dining and parking area. The house is in a quiet hamlet but a short drive from the amenities of the local village (boulangerie, butcher's, pharmacie etc), and 5 minutes from supermarkets etc at Etauliers & St Ciers sur Gironde. Less than 5 minutes from the A10 motorway, giving easy access to Bordeaux. The estuary town of Blaye is...
