NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Set on a private plot of 588 square metres, the chalet offers over 300 square metres of refined living space across three floors. Every element has been carefully considered, from the quality of the materials to the flow of light and space, resulting in a home that feels both luxurious and effortlessly comfortable.

The entrance opens into a bright, glass-partitioned foyer with a spacious cloakroom. From here, the property unfolds into its stunning open-plan living space — a spectacular top-floor sanctuary bathed in natural light. Beneath a beautiful timber-framed ceiling, the bespoke kitchen, dining, and living areas flow seamlessly together, anchored by a grand stone fireplace that forms the heart of the home. Floor-to-ceiling cathedral windows frame uninterrupted views of the mountains, while doors open out onto a spacious south-facing terrace and a wraparound balcony on the eastern façade — the perfect setting to enjoy the serenity of the landscape from sunrise to sunset.

On the floor below, four elegant ensuite bedrooms offer privacy and comfort in equal measure. Each room is finished with high-quality fittings and bespoke cabinetry, while the magnificent master suite stands out for its generous proportions and a truly unique ensuite bathroom featuring a double shower. Throughout, the sense of craftsmanship and care in the design is unmistakable — from the choice of materials to the subtle interplay of light and texture.

The ground floor is devoted to wellness and relaxation, with a fully equipped gym, mirrored walls, and specialist flooring for training...
