NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The main access to the property is via an external staircase leading to the first floor. The entrance hallway features several built-in storage cupboards. To the right, you'll find a convenient WC, while to the left is a versatile room ideal as a home office or small bedroom 8.1m².

Continuing through, the largest upstairs room measures approximately 14.5m²—a bright and generous space perfect for use as a main lounge. Two additional rooms of 8.4m² and 8.6m² offer further flexibility for bedrooms or hobby spaces. This level also includes a shower room with a double sink.

An internal staircase leads down to the ground floor, where the 13.1m² kitchen features a range of fitted units and flows through to another room of 8.1m²—ideal as a dining area or snug. There is also a separate WC on this level.

A spacious 17.9m² room, formerly a garage, has been converted into a comfortable lounge/bar area with a utility room at the rear. From here, there is access to an attached garage for additional storage or parking.

The property has oil fuelled central heating and is single glazed.

Outside, the property enjoys a generous garden with two wells and several outbuildings, perfect for storing garden tools, creating a small workshop, or keeping chickens.

Nestled in the heart of the Dordogne department in the Nouvelle-Aquitaine region of southwestern France, Quinsac is a tranquil rural commune covering around 17.4 km² and home to under 400 residents.
