NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Investment opportunity in Limoux with existing rental income and strong potential to add value.

This four-apartment building presents an attractive opportunity for an investor looking to enter the Limoux property market.

Two apartments are currently rented, providing an existing rental income, while the remaining two require renovation. The recent price reduction reflects the work required, allowing a buyer to acquire the property at a more attractive price while creating additional value through the renovation and subsequent rental of the two vacant apartments.

The property benefits from its proximity to Limoux town centre and the Place de la République, with its cafés, restaurants, shops and everyday amenities. Limoux offers a genuine year-round town-centre lifestyle and an established rental market.

Limoux is a well-known town in the Aude, particularly famous for its Blanquette de Limoux, local vineyards and its celebrated Carnival, an important part of the town's identity and one of the longest-running carnivals in the world. Its historic centre, regular markets, local businesses and events give the town a lively atmosphere throughout the year.

Located just a short distance from Carcassonne, Limoux also benefits from its setting among vineyards and the Cathar Country, with easy access to surrounding villages, countryside and outdoor activities.

An excellent opportunity for an investor seeking an accessible entry point into the market, with two apartments already generating rental income and two further units offering significant potential following renovation.
