DESCRIPTION

Set in a peaceful hamlet surrounded by the beautiful Creuse countryside, this attractive pair of attached stone houses offers a rare opportunity to acquire two character properties with superb renovation potential — ideal for creating a family home with guest accommodation, a holiday rental project, or a multi-generational living space.

The first property is in good condition and already habitable, though it would benefit from interior modernisation to unlock its full potential.

The entrance, located to the rear, leads into a bright, spacious kitchen-diner overlooking the garden, with a large open granite fireplace — perfect for a wood burner. A cosy lounge with original parquet flooring and a small shower room with WC complete the ground floor.

Up the original oak staircase, there are two double bedrooms — a simple reconfiguration could easily create a corridor for full privacy.

Outside, the property enjoys a generous garden of over a quarter of an acre, located to the side and rear, with attached outbuildings and a garage that could be converted into additional living space. The property is semi-detached and requires a new septic tank.

Adjoining the first, this substantial stone farmhouse is full of original features including marble fireplaces, oak beams, parquet floors, and high ceilings, offering endless potential to become a magnificent family residence or countryside retreat.

The ground floor includes a large traditional kitchen, a separate dining room, and a spacious lounge, all with excellent proportions and natural light. A ground-floor bedroom connects to an adjoining room — ideal...
