NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Located close to the central square in La Coquille, this spacious 4-bedroom house is ideally placed for local amenities including the railway station for trains to Limoges, Périgueux and beyond. Being double glazed throughout and having a wood pellet central heating boiler with a large pellet hopper, this property has achieved a desirable energy performance classification of C. On the ground floor a central hallway with WC leads to a generous dining room and kitchen to the left, and an inviting lounge with a fireplace to the right. On the 1st floor, the large master bedroom has built-in storage around the bed and a private shower room. Three further bedrooms (two are suitable for double beds), a family shower room and a WC complete the first floor. Outside, a small outbuilding has a laundry room and a workshop, and houses the boiler. A gated drive at the rear of the house offers private off-road parking. Beyond the workshop the garden opens out and gives plenty of space to cultivate.
