DESCRIPTION

Property comprising a main house and a tiny house guest cottage, with a swimming pool and waterfall, a landscaped artificial pond with a cascade, a landscaped garden, and land.

The main house is of high quality construction and features beautiful original elements that have been carefully sourced and repurposed. On the ground floor, you'll find a large living room with its monumental fireplace, salvaged from a ruined castle and carefully rebuilt. a large kitchen, two generous bedrooms, a shower room renovated two years ago, and ample storage space.

The upper floor, in need of renovation, offers great potential. It consists of a large room that can be used as an office or living area, a bedroom, a shower room, and an attic that is already insulated. All that remains is to redesign the layout and update the décor to create a warm and personalized living space.

In addition, a charming tiny house of approximately 20 m², located near the pool, is a real asset. It features a kitchenette, a shower room with WC, and a mezzanine bedroom, and can generate attractive rental income, especially during the holiday season.

The property also includes an animal shelter, a large garage, a beautiful landscaped pond, and a heated saltwater swimming pool.

This is a very attractive and comfortable home, full of charm, set within a lovely garden. The pond and the pool create exceptional spaces to fully enjoy nature and sunny days.
