DESCRIPTION

Introduction

Located in a peaceful and highly desirable residential setting on the edge of the historic village of Solignac, this charming detached property offers an exceptional lifestyle opportunity combining comfort, nature and genuine development potential. Just 18 minutes from Limoges city centre and within easy reach of the international airport and mainline train station, the property enjoys both tranquillity and convenience.

The house

Built in 1970 and perfectly maintained, the house offers approximately 104 m² of living space and is presented in excellent overall condition. It features double-glazed windows, ensuring good everyday comfort. At the end of February 2026, all gutters and roofline finishes (including soffits and exterior trim) around the entire property were completely renewed, a recent investment clearly visible in the current photos, further highlighting the careful upkeep, durability, and overall quality of the home.

The interior comprises a bright and welcoming living room, a high-quality Schmidt fitted kitchen known for its design and functionality, three bedrooms including a master suite with private shower room, an independent bathroom and separate WC. The attic provides useful additional storage space.

The full basement is a major asset and offers significant possibilities. With the potential to create a separate entrance, this level could easily be transformed into a studio, guest accommodation, workspace or a small independent apartment. A dedicated wine cellar is also located here, ideal for wine lovers and entertaining.

Land and development potential
