NOTES

DESCRIPTION

An Elegant Rural Retreat in the Heart of Southwest France

Nestled among the rolling hills of the Haute Pyrenees and only a few minutes from the renowned wine village of Madiran, this superb property combines 19th-century character with modern comfort and outstanding income potential. Set against a backdrop of uninterrupted views of the Pyrenees, the estate includes a distinguished maison de maître of approximately 300 m² and a beautifully renovated barn offering 325 m² of versatile space.

Approached through imposing period gates, the property immediately conveys a sense of tranquillity and heritage. Mature trees, manicured lawns, and colourful plantings create a soothing atmosphere while framing the dramatic mountain panorama. This peaceful setting is enhanced by its position amongst Madiran's famous vineyards, châteaux, and local organic farms — the quintessential southwest French lifestyle.

The Main House: Character, Comfort and Space
The 19th-century maison de maître retains its original charm, with generous volumes and traditional architectural details.
