DESCRIPTION

This authentic property is located at the foot of the Cévennes, in the village of Molières-sur-Cèze. This atypical property is full of charm (former temple) with great potential to be discovered. The ground floor has been partially renovated.

The living area of the lower floor is 161 m² and includes a beautiful 76 m² cathedral hall with a mezzanine, a lounge, a library, a stage for musicians, a 35 m² kitchen, a 15 m² bedroom, a separate toilet and a bathroom (a second bedroom has been created on the mezzanine). The kitchen has direct access to the stone terrace.

Heating is provided by two built-in fireplaces (one in the kitchen and one in the cathedral room).

The second part on the first floor, measuring 160 m², needs to be completely renovated and offers great potential with its seven rooms (double glazing already installed), numerous cellars and glass roof.

The house stands on a plot of 2,175 m². This property is ideal for a project as a main residence, second home, gîtes, seminars, etc. .
