DESCRIPTION

Benefiting from a prime location close to the slopes, this duplex apartment is located in a small condominium of three apartments providing quick and easy access to the ski area. Ski lifts, ski schools, shops, restaurants, and Val Thorens' lively après-ski scene are all just a short walk away, ensuring a seamless resort experience where everything is within easy reach.

The apartment also has its own private garage which is a real benefit and luxury in Val Thorens.

The apartment features three comfortable bedrooms, designed to offer peace and privacy after a day on the slopes. The living spaces are bright and welcoming, with a socialable living area ideal for relaxing and sharing time together with family or friends. Large windows allow in plenty of natural light and let you enjoy the unique alpine atmosphere of the resort.

Set at an altitude of 2,300 metres, Val Thorens is renowned for its exceptional and reliable snow conditions, guaranteeing excellent skiing throughout the season. As part of the legendary Les Trois Vallées, the world's largest interconnected ski area, the resort offers access to over 600 km of pistes, suitable for all levels, from beginners to advanced skiers.

Beyond skiing, Val Thorens boasts a wide range of activities and leisure options, including snowshoeing, tobogganing, wellness centres, sporting and cultural events, as well as a vibrant and well-known après-ski scene. Modern, lively, and consistently award-winning, the resort is celebrated for the quality of its facilities and its welcoming atmosphere.
