DESCRIPTION

This charming countryside property offers a nearly completed main house, an additional building ready for renovation into further living space / gîte, and a generous parcel of land—an ideal opportunity for anyone seeking a peaceful rural retreat with great potential.

Main House (Habitable & Near Completion)

Significant works have already been carried out, including:

Complete rewiring and new plumbing

Newly installed wet room/WC

High-spec double-glazed doors and windows

Wood-burning stove

New, conforming fosse septique

Entirely replaced roof

The current layout features two large open-plan spaces incorporating a basic kitchen area and the shower room/WC. The future configuration is entirely up to the new owner: with just three stud walls, the planned two bedrooms could be easily created. One of the spaces has a newly concreted floor ready for your choice of finish, while the other retains its beautiful original flooring.

There is also an additional room (formerly an outbuilding) that could be converted if desired; it requires a new roof, with a quote of approximately €6,500 already obtained.

You also, of course have the whole upstairs to play with if you so wish although permission for velux windows would be needed via the mairie.

Second Building (To Renovate)

This structure offers a solid starting point, with a concrete floor on the ground level and two upper floors in place—perfect for extending your living area or creating a separate gîte.

The Setting

The entire ensemble offers exceptional potential to create a stunning home with ample land in a tranquil hamlet setting. Despite its peaceful location, the property is conveniently...
