DESCRIPTION

Located on the top floor of a building constructed in 1992, this apartment has a surface area of 62 square feet (58.61 square meters according to the Carrez Law). It offers a functional and balanced layout, with well-distributed space.

The building was constructed in 1992 and features green space, bicycle storage, fiber optic internet, and an intercom system. The apartment has been continuously rented since its construction, demonstrating its appeal. It is currently vacant, allowing for immediate occupancy or rental without restriction.

The living room and the entire apartment enjoy beautiful natural light. The separate kitchen allows for practical organization and has real potential for renovation, with the possibility of opening it up to the living room. The sleeping area consists of two quiet bedrooms, suitable for both a primary residence and a rental project.

The kitchen and bathroom need some updating, offering the future buyer the opportunity to bring the property up to date and personalize it according to their needs.

The apartment also includes a sound and functional concrete cellar, as well as a closed garage measuring over 14 m², located opposite the entrance, providing convenient parking and storage space.

The property is located in the Rochebonne neighborhood, a residential area renowned for its tranquility and quality of life. The environment is appreciated for its immediate proximity to the coastline while maintaining a peaceful living environment. The beaches are within walking distance, as are local shops, services, public transportation, and major roads. The geographical location, between Paramé...
